

Postgraduate Programmes in Autism Spectrum Disorder

自閉症譜系障礙 深造課程

Master of Social Sciences in Autism Spectrum Disorder Postgraduate Diploma in Autism Spectrum Disorder Postgraduate Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorder

Special Features

- The programmes aim at providing students with more advanced and up-to-date knowledge of researches, theories, interventions, and therapies for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).
- Taught by professional clinical, counselling, educational psychologists and other relevant mental health practitioners.
- For Bachelor's degree holders from related disciplines. The programmes are also suitable for health care professionals, occupational therapists, nurses, social workers, teachers, and parents, who are interested in enriching and deepening their knowledge in ASD or improving their academic and professional standing.

	Master of Social Sciences in Autism Spectrum Disorder (MSSCASD)	Postgraduate Diploma in Autism Spectrum Disorder (PDASD)	Postgraduate Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorder (PCASD)
Entry Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Bachelor's degree in psychology, education, counselling or other relevant disciplines, from a recognized programme • A basic understanding of psychological, health, or educational research methods is preferred 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Bachelor's degree in any discipline, or equivalent, from a recognized programme
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good command of English
Programme of Study	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 8 courses + Master's Capstone Project for 60 credits 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 8 courses for 40 credits 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 4 courses for 20 credits
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A 1-year full-time or 2-year part-time study • Face-to-face teaching mode • Lectures in the evenings on weekdays and/or afternoons on weekends 		