

人文社會科學院 School of Arts and Social Sciences

Student Exchange Programme with Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu, Romania

With the aim to broaden our students' global perspective, the School of Arts and Social Sciences is pleased to announce the overseas exchange opportunity with Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu under the agreement of Erasmus+ Programme. Named after the distinguished Romanian writer and philosopher, Lucian Blaga, the university has approximately 15,000 students each year enrolled in various forms of higher education and around 650 members of the teaching staff in different disciplines. It is a privilege for our school to have an exchange agreement with the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, in which our students could have the opportunities to study 10 months abroad in this Faculty.

The Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities holds a unique place within Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu through the variety of study programmes. It offers fifteen study programmes at the Bachelor's degree level (Communication and Public Relations, Conservation and Restoration, Heritage Studies and Management of the Cultural Assets, History, Human Resources, International Relations and European Studies, Journalism, Political Science, Primary and Pre-School Teacher Training Programme in German Language, Primary and Pre-School Teacher Training Programme in Romanian Language, Psychology, Security Studies, Social Work, Sociology, Theology in German Language). Please click here to find out more about the programmes.

For further information, please contact Ms Charlie Kwok (Email: cwkwok@ouhk.edu.hk) or Dr Kaby Kung (Email: kkung@ouhk.edu.hk) in the School of Arts and Social Sciences.